QUESTIONS FOR THE SP

2025 EDITION!

We all know Socialism wouldn't be the same without the Sparts. Here are our questions for you this year:

---

1. What should socialists do at Your Party's founding conference?
2. Why wasn't the Birmingham bin strike escalated?
3. Should socialists support Andrea Egan?
4. Is Mamdani's election a victory for the workers movement?
5. Should socialists be for a two-state solution in Palestine?

Our answers:

SPART ANSWERS

1 Fight for clear socialist politics. Sultana's speech in Liverpool is a good starting point.

3 No. She doesn't even oppose the Starmer government. Being slightly more left-wing isn't enough to warrant support.

READ MORE:

4 No. Mamdani is a Democrat. His main purpose is to give the party a facelift. Socialists must fight in the DSA to break it from the Democrats.

READ MORE:

5 No. There can be no justice without the Palestinians' right to return to their land. We must fight for a single socialist state which respects the national rights of all, and to break Israeli workers from Zionism.
